Pricing

All prices are presented without considering what other fees that might apply to your wedding. My mission is to collaborate with you and find a package that can be customized for each wedding since no two are the same.

Initial Consultation:

Free

Grow your wedding vision with a chat with me where I pick your brain about what exactly you're searching for. Also get to know me and see if I am someone you connect with. Trust starts here, and your wedding planner needs to be a perfect fit.

The Big Day:

Starting at $1,000

This is the day-of coordination package I offer. This equals to about 20 hours of work, including rehearsals and 2 meetings. One being our initial meeting to capture what your fully planned day will look like, and then the final walk through at your venue a few weeks before your wedding day. I would recommend every couple to have a day-of coordinator at the very least, to ensure you can enjoy your wedding.

Start to Finish:

Starting at $5,000

This is my full planning package. Total of 100 hours of my hard work and collaboration. My checklists and tips and tricks are all yours to ensure I will making your planning process flawless and easy on you as a couple. This is a package for the couple that is not wanting to lift a finger.

Helping Hand:

Starting at $2,250

This is a partial planning package. This includes The Big Day package with an additional 25 hours of my hard work. This can be used for meetings, tastings, and finding vendors. This package is very flexible and can be tailored to what you need. This package is best for my couples who need a little bit of help and day-of coordinator but have most of the planning under control.
