

Pricing

We do not have set pricing. All trips will vary upon many factors:

- Time of year
- How many days
- Category of accommodations/room categories (entry level vs butler/concierge)
- Airfare fluctuates constantly
- The actual resort & room location on the resort
- Location of resort (off beach vs on the beach)
- Potential promotions
- Existing availability at a resort
- All-inclusive vs no meals & drinks included (European Plan)

We do our best to work with everyone, but we do have a minimum budget that we require in order to work with us. This is to ensure your satisfaction and investment in the successful outcome of your vacation. If you wish to use our services, your minimum budget must be $3,000 USD, no exceptions. In our experience with touring many, many resorts and ships over the years, you get what you pay for. The lower budget range of options out there aren't going to give you the experience you've dreamed about for your honeymoon, wedding, or special occasion. This is not the time to cut back. It has been said that it is better to trim back on your wedding than cut corners on your honeymoon. Some of these lower end options are below standards, too, so if I wouldn't feel comfortable going there, I won't put you there. Please contact us through our website to schedule a complimentary consultation.
