

Thank you for your interest in Barb Wired!

For specific pricing, we would like to present the value of our services to you in person (virtual or meet & greet.) Better yet, schedule a FREE consultation via our website, BarbWiredllc.com under the Contact Form. Or, you can connect with us on the WeddingWire storefront through the 'Request Pricing' button and we will get back with you. We are known for getting back to our couples within 24 hours.

No Pricing upfront you ask? I know, it's a bummer. It can be easier to get pricing upfront in this fast-paced world and with your busy schedule. But hear us out on why we do it this way... We are very excited to learn more about your requirements for your big day and would love to talk with you directly during our FREE Consultation to get a clear and in-depth understanding of your needs. The Consultation will clarify what may be the best package for you and yours and tips and tricks we can give you upfront.

*Our very interactive and established team takes pride in getting to know our couples through in-person communication. Our work isn't just a job for us but a passion. We are honored in getting to know you and your partner and would not want to miss any detail. Did we mention that the First Consultation is FREE?!

Ok, what information can we give you right now?

For 2023, our couples spent, on average, $TBD with Barb Wired in the Charlottesville region. We promise it is worth your time to connect with us virtually or in-person to understand our value... and who doesn't want a FREE Consultation. We hope to hear from you soon!
