

Africa.

A vast, untamed continent, it offers an unparalleled variety of experiences to the adventurous traveler. But where to begin? We work for the traveler who lives life by their own design. For you, we offer unparalleled access. To ideas. To people. To places. Beginning with a knowledgeable, sophisticated conversation that satisfies your unique search for fulfillment by creating an experience around you.

A hot air balloon with orange, yellow, and green stripes is floating in the sky over a vast desert landscape of rolling sand dunes. The scene is captured at sunset, with a warm, golden-orange glow across the sky and the dunes. The balloon is positioned in the middle ground, slightly to the right of the center.

Why Choose Roar Africa?

South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, Zimbabwe, Zambia, Mozambique, Kenya, Tanzania and the islands of the Indian Ocean: Madagascar, Mauritius, the Maldives, and the Seychelles. These are the places we have known for generations. Because we are part of it, we will make you a part of it. Artists, scientists, historians, conservationists, craftsmen, tribesmen- all can play a role in catering to your interests. And our guides can offer an endless supply of stories, experiences, insights, and perspectives.

Owned by a family that has been here since 1688, we can guide you through this place, our home, and make you a valued guest. Coupled with a staff who can listen to a client and find the best solution to an interest, passion, or desire, we offer concierge level service tailored to a guest who is entitled to their preferences, their quirks, and their personal choices. We have longstanding connections to lodges, hotels and properties, places you may never have heard of, or can't easily find. And we have people on the ground, who know the culture, the customs, and the way to get in and out, with ease and comfort.

Guest Experiences

Vanessa Williams brought her family for Christmas, for an extraordinary two week tour of South Africa. We catered to interests as varied as the family members themselves, so each left with experiences that were common to all and all their own. Her daughter (10 years old) chose to donate to "Save the Elephants" instead of receiving gifts at her next birthday party.

A well known African art collector wanted to meet up-and-coming South African artists and musicians. We arranged a private dinner in the wine cellar at a local artist's home, and the attendance of an African township gospel service on Sunday.

Tori took her mother on our "behind the scenes" tasting tour through South Africa's stunningly beautiful wine country. They were joined by our guide Richard Hilton, who took time away from his own barrels, to introduce them to vintners and vintages not accessible to the public, providing an understanding of a 300 year-old history of great winemaking, along with memorable meals and conversations, full of history and stories.

Guest Experiences

Stephen West of Bermuda, a professional cricketer, wanted to umpire a cricket game in Cape Town during his 3rd trip to Africa with 13 of his friends. We arranged for him to have this incredible experience and dine with the national team.

By day the McCarthy brothers fly-fished the world-class bonefish flats of the Seychelles with our trophy guide, while their wives sipped, massaged, and sunned their way through three of the most stunning beach hotels on the planet. By night, they closed the restaurant with laughter, charm and good humor. They gave us all a lesson in the virtues of separation and rejuvenation.

Chris Burch & Monika Chang visited Imibala, The Ruperts Foundation. We arranged for them to sit down with the management of Imibala and get to understand the program. Chris generously sponsored 117 children.

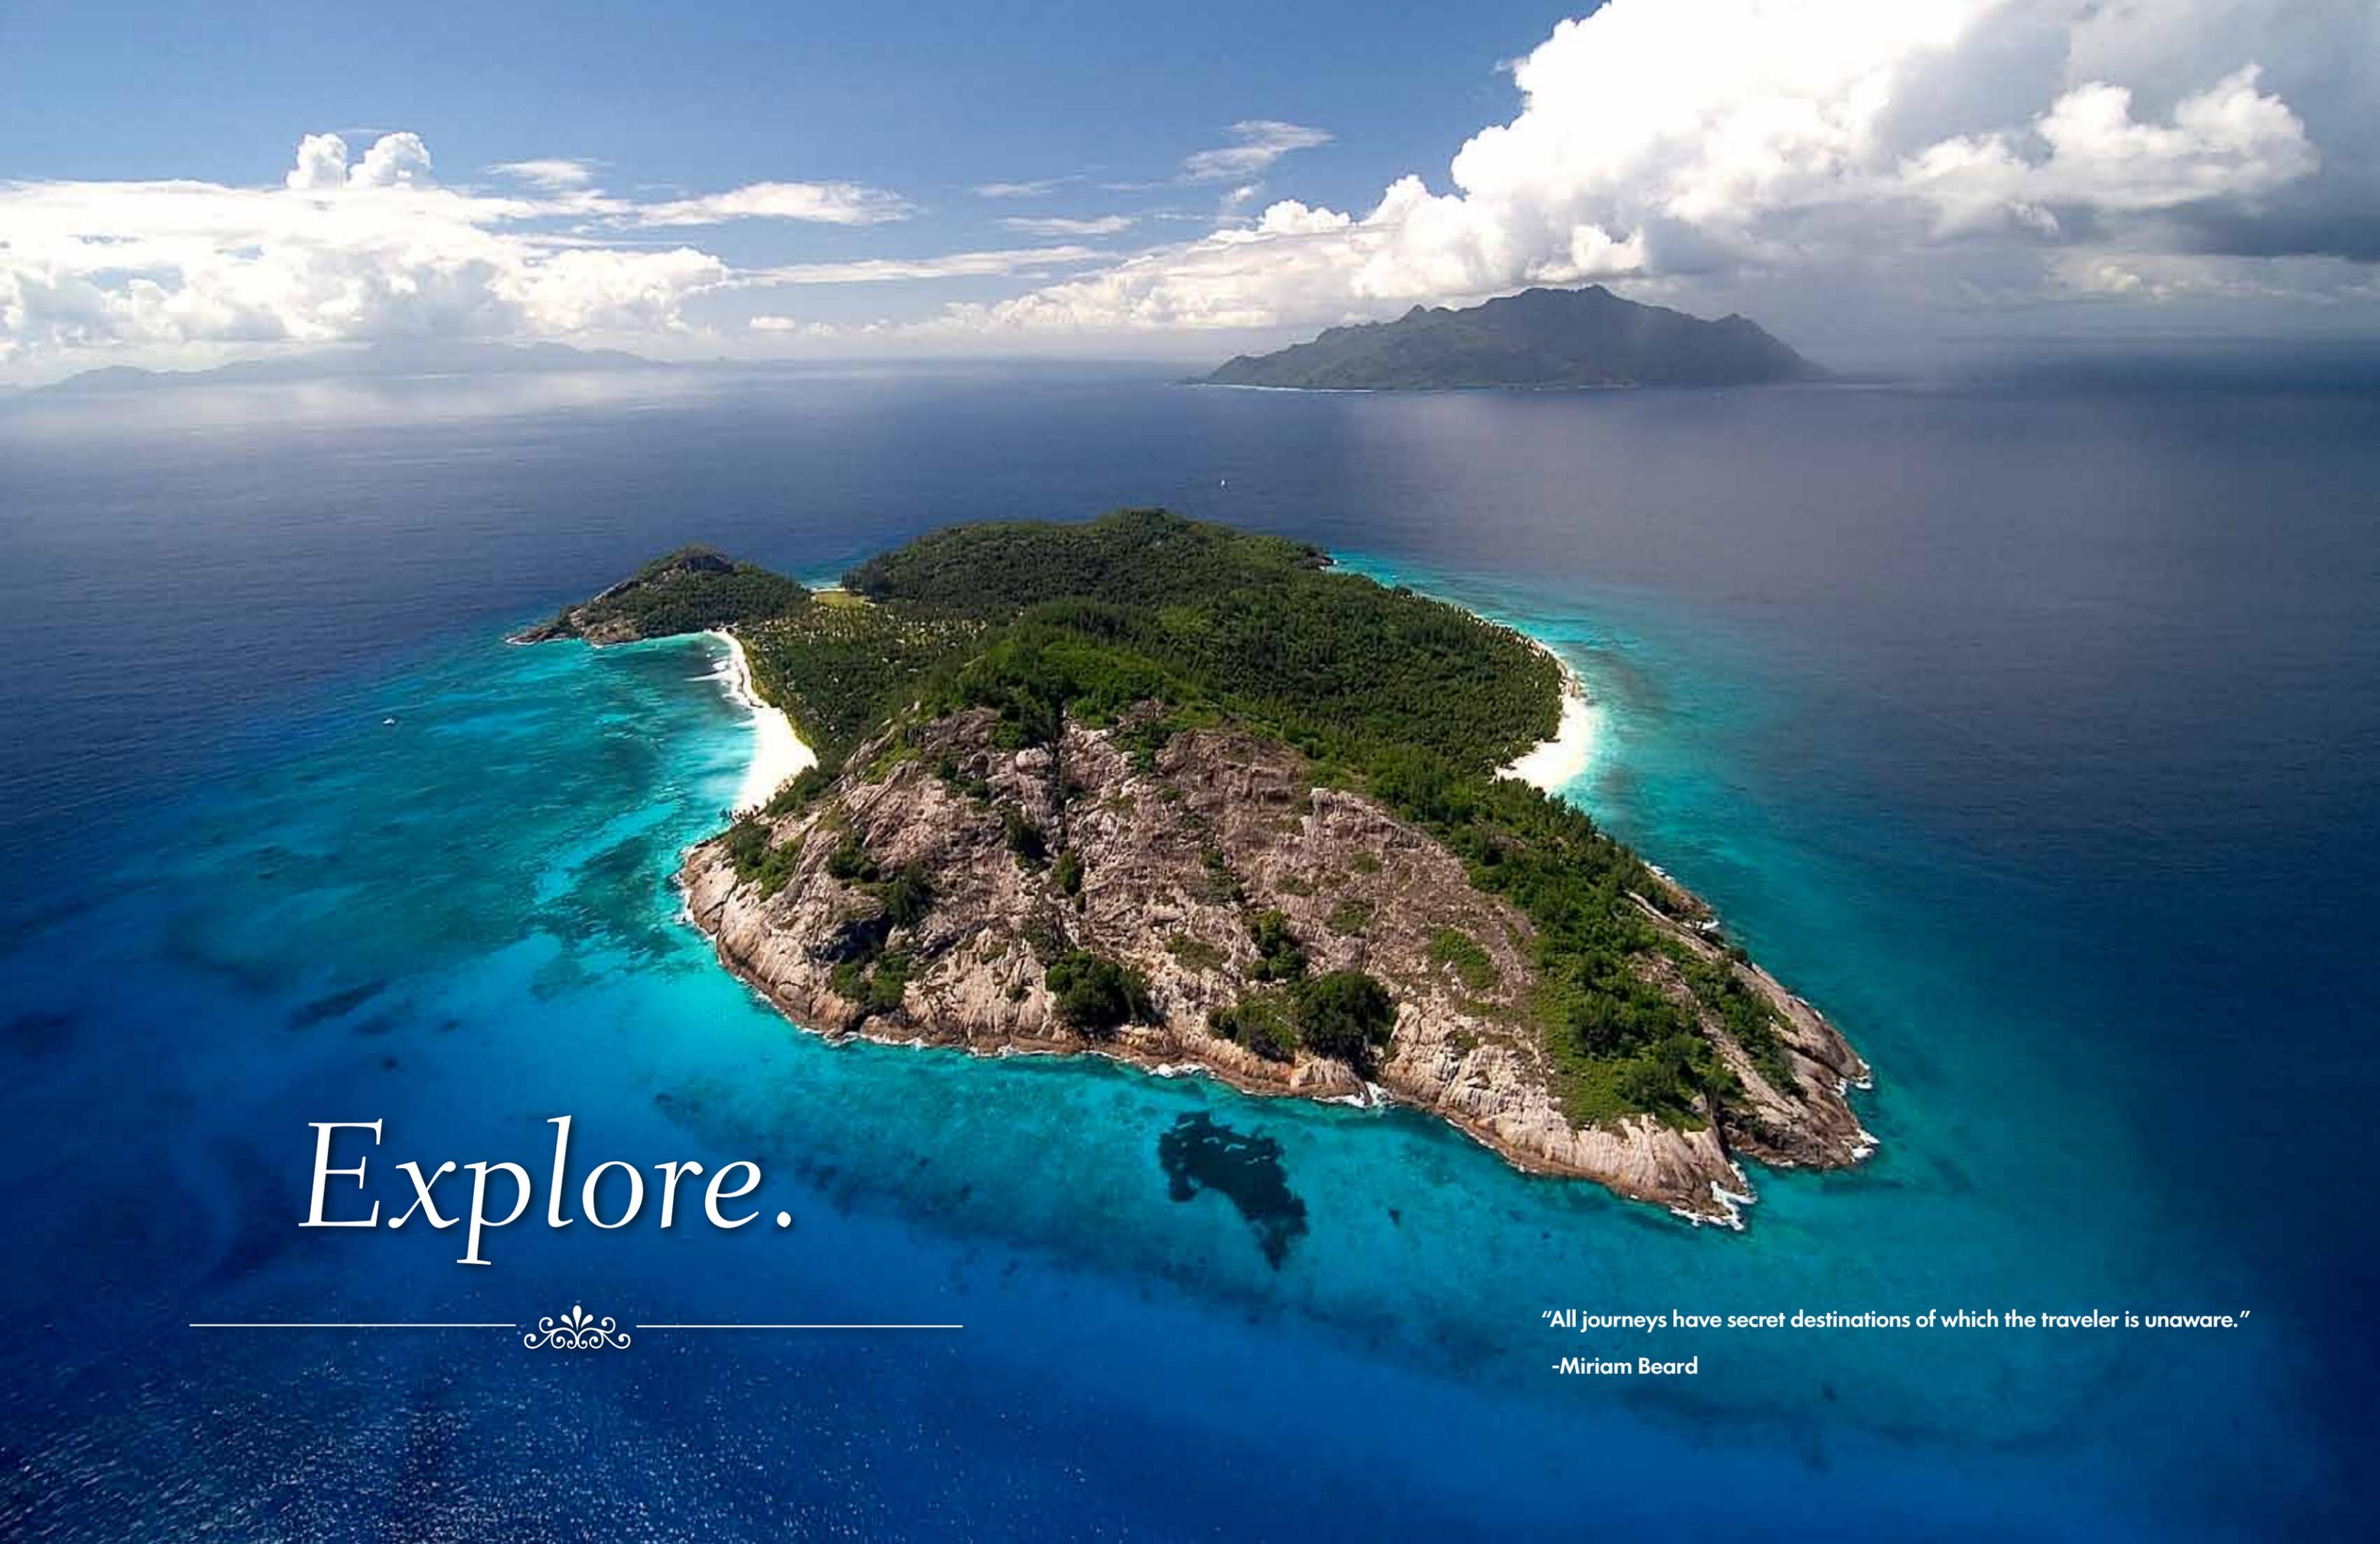

Guest Experiences

Luxury bathrooms can be found all over the world, in all sorts of exotic hotels. Indelible moments like this cannot.

Not all of our clients want to stare into the mouth of a Great White. But for those who do, Cape Town offers a sophisticated city for thirsts of all kinds, and a cage-dive like no other place in the world.

An aerial photograph of a tropical island. The island is covered in lush green vegetation and has a prominent white sandy beach on its left side. The water around the island is a vibrant turquoise color, transitioning to a deep blue as it extends into the distance. In the background, there are more islands and a range of mountains under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds.

"All journeys have secret destinations of which the traveler is unaware."

-Miriam Beard

Africa remains a wild place, full of wondrous sights and vivid experiences. All it takes is your desire for adventure, and a company to make it everything you ever wanted.
