who we are

TO KNOW US, IS TO LOVE US, AND MORE IMPORTANTLY, TO TRUST US WITH YOUR MOST IMPORTANT DAY

Hey there! We are Kathryn and Travis- the husband and wife team behind the lenses hustling behind the scenes to make sure your day flows smoothly while you get quality time as a newly married couple. We believe every couple should be able to get the best of both worlds and you shouldn't have to choose between enjoying your wedding or getting amazing pictures.

Our philosophy is simple. We take beautiful photos to remember your special day. The moments and looks that you'll want to cherish forever. The ones that you'll frame in your home for years to come.

Kathryn and Travis are phenomenal! Not only do they work hard, capture every moment and deliver the best work imaginable. They are also extremely professional, accommodating and friendly. And on the days leading up to your wedding and on your special day they can also become a therapist and a shoulder to cry on in an instant. Without a doubt I made THE BEST decision choosing Kathryn and Travis to be an instrumental part of my big day!-

WHY WE OFFER

complimentary engagements

When we find a new couple, it means more to us than just a date on our calendar. We want to get to know you and make sure we are the perfect fit well before your wedding day! That's why we encourage all of our couples to schedule a complimentary engagement session. During our session you'll work with me (Kathryn) learning all the poses we will be using for your wedding day. Does that sound intimidating? Don't worry! We always go slow and by the end of your session you'll feel like a model. :)

Once you are in our books for your wedding date we will talk about the best outfit choices and locations that match the two of you. For some this means long beautiful maxi dresses and slacks with a bow tie (my absolute fave!). For others, it may mean a bit more casual, like a cute romper and khakis. Whatever makes you feel your best! We always encourage our couples to head to a date night after their session to take full advantage of getting fancy.

Our biggest goal is that by the end of your engagement session, you feel confident in yourselves, leave with plenty of memories, and feel excited to work with us on your wedding day! Not to mention, gorgeous pictures for you to share of this exciting time in your life!

investment

Eloping doesn't mean you don't want quality pictures and we get that! Your day is special and deserves to be documented. Or perhaps you aren't eloping but have a smaller budget for photography while still hoping for frame worthy images. We get that too! We are happy to offer 4 hours of coverage with 1 primary shooter to make sure you receive quality images from your day.

FULL COVERAGE PACKAGE
COMPLIMENTARY
ENGAGEMENT SESSION
8 HOUR WEDDING DAY
$2200

The most common of our packages! In most cases, 8 hours is exactly the amount of time we need to capture getting ready pictures, detail shots, first looks, and your full reception! This package include 2 shooters (so we'll both be there for you!).

For the couple that has photography at the top of their list and wants to capture as much of this moment in their life as possible! The only thing that is missing from this package is an album- but don't worry, check out our FAQ's to see how to add one!
