

TASHA RAE DESIGNS

THE PROCESS

1. SEND ME AN EMAIL OR CALL

and we'll set up your initial consultation.

2. CONSULTATION (IN PERSON OR VIA EMAIL/PHONE)

Inspiration: Show me your inspiration photos, Pinterest Board, Dress, Flowers, Colors, etc.

Budget: We'll discuss how many and what pieces you need designed and printed, and how we can fit everything into your budget.

Timeline: We'll create a timeline so you know when to order everything to stay on schedule.

3. MOCK-UPS

After our consultation, I'll work up some initial designs. We will work first via email, then once I have 2-3 designs ready for you, I'll drop mock-ups in the mail so you can see them in person. We can then discuss your likes/dislikes and refine your choices.

4. PROOFS

Once we have ironed out all the details, I'll provide you with PDF and/or physical proofs, along with a print agreement for you to approve. Payment is then due in full before your stationery is printed. Print time generally runs 2-3 weeks*

*Rush orders are available. Timing depends on when the order is placed.

WEDDING INVITATION QUESTIONS

What types of printing do you offer?

We offer flat/digital printing, custom foil printing, white ink printing.

I don't see exactly what I want on your site, do you offer custom designs?

Yes! Nothing is written in stone! We can adjust the colors, graphics, wording, paper colors, etc., on any of my existing designs, or if you have a vision in your head of the perfect wedding invitation, we can work together to bring it to life.

When should I place my invitation order?

Wedding invitations should be mailed out approximately 6-8 weeks before your wedding day. Custom designs can take anywhere from a week to a month, so better to get started early if you want a custom design. Standard print time once we have decided on the design and proofs are approved, runs 10-14 days. Rush orders are available - rush fees may apply.

Do I get to see proofs of my invitations before they are printed?

Yes! We will work via email and PDF proofs to start, and then if you'd like a printed proof, we can do that too!

Can I order other items besides invitations from you too?

Yes! We can design everything to coordinate...save-the-dates, invitations, programs, table names/numbers, place cards, menus, thank you cards, favor tags/stickers, large and small ceremony & reception signs, welcome letters...and more!

What forms of payment do you accept?

I can send you an invoice to pay through Paypal, you can mail me a check, or if you are in the Denver area, cash payments are always accepted!

How much postage is required to mail out my invitations?

That is a question for the good ol' USPS! Make sure you take a complete set of your printed invitations to your local post office, so they can verify the correct postage for the size, weight and thickness of your invitations. They can also tell you about any upcoming postage increases, so you make sure you have enough postage on your reply cards coming back to you.
