about Kara

Hello! I'm Kara and I am a modern calligrapher in Harrisburg and Hershey, Pennsylvania. I am mostly known for my shopping sprees and my overprotective nature of everyone I know. My friends often refer to me as mama bear!

I am passionate about my family and creating beauty for those I love. That is one of the reasons I love doing wedding calligraphy. A wedding is the beginning of a family and I know how special that is. I feel so blessed to create products that will help make your wedding day beautiful and design keepsakes you can cherish for a lifetime.

Handwritten calligraphy can add elegance and romance to any wedding. From the first glimpse of the save the dates to the table numbers at the reception, your printed materials can really set the tone for your wedding and showcase your personality.

My style of calligraphy is modern, romantic, and unique. Let me take care of the details that can bring your wedding together into the beautiful day you have envisioned!

Process

WHAT IS THE NEXT STEP

Step One

The whole process begins with a phone call or email conversation about your design ideas. What is your wedding style, color palette, ideas for calligraphed pieces...basically your Pinterest board!

Step Two

After we have an idea of the direction you would like to go, we'll put together some of our own ideas to reflect what we've gathered from you as well a custom price quote.

Step Three

Once you've decided that your heart is set on us, we'll move to a contract which will detail all the calligraphed elements we will design with you. Once the contract is in place, a 50% deposit will be due.

Step Four

We can then move forward with the design specifics. We will take a look at the designs together and decide what you love! Custom wedding decor generally takes 2-3 weeks for completion. (If sending to a printer, 5-6 weeks) let's create!
