

Glen Manor House

Your own private fairytale.

Intimate yet grand, our setting is perfect for a romantic, dreamlike wedding or important occasion. Nestled on the banks of the Sakonnet River amidst beautifully tended gardens, Glen Manor House is the ideal place to create an event your guests will never forget.

A hidden gem with a glorious view.

From the old world charm of the beautifully detailed rooms to the manicured formal gardens, sweeping waterfront lawns, and architecturally stunning patios, Glen Manor offers many charming and breathtaking locations for staging your event and for magical photos to treasure afterwards.

Make it yours for the day.

Add your creative touch to Glen Manor's elegance to make it your own. We care about your experience so much that we only schedule one event per day. Choose any five-hour period within your selected date. The entire day is yours.

Details matter.

At Glen Manor, we are committed to ensuring that you have a beautiful, stress-free event. Our customers rave about their experience with our professional and responsive support. You can expect a smooth, seamless process for you and your planner from start to finish.

Enjoy a magical time in an elegant, versatile space.

Glen Manor's flexible layout and expansive interior allow for a great occasion—even in inclement weather. Choose from our many versatile spaces—interior rooms, covered patios, gorgeous gardens and waterfront lawns—for an event that flows beautifully throughout the day or evening.
