Weddings are a big deal. All the anticipation, planning, and dreams of your big day are about to become real! Above that, weddings are a holy and sacred time in a couples life as they become one. I don't take it lightly that sweet people like you trust me with some of their biggest memories. I often cry during ceremonies, so touched to get to be apart of such a day. It would be an honor to get to know you, and your beautiful story!!

Happy wedding planning! xoxo,

Kayla Lauren
