At Paper & Posh we love paper and design, and we want to share that passion with you! We want to create your perfect, unique invitation, one that represents both you, and your event. We also understand how overwhelming event planning an event can be, so one of our goals is take the stress out of the invitation process, and make it fun and exciting.

We offer flat and offset print, thermography (raised print), letterpress, foil stamped and engraved invitations and stationery. We have hundreds of samples from all of the major invitation and stationery designers including Kleinfeld Papers, Crane, Vera Wang, William Arthur, and Luscious Verde at our store, to name a few! We also have two amazing graphic designers at our fingertips, as well an array of paper and ink samples from which we will customize and create your perfect and one-of-a-kind invitation. We have a number of samples of our work on our website, www.paperposh.com. Pricing

At Paper & Posh we know that weddings can be quite expensive, and we do our best to create an amazing, custom invitation for you within your budget. Invitation pricing is set by the invitation designer/manufacturer. Our consultation with you, expertise in design, paper and ink process, as well as etiquette advice and hours of dedication to your wedding invitations, are complimentary and included in the price of your invitations.

"Invitation suites" consist of your main invitation, return address on your main envelope, a response set and one insert card. Our regular (non-sale) prices for invitation suites are start at roughly $9 per invitation suite.

Many different factors can increase the pricing including upgrades to paper choice and print process (i.e. letterpress and foil), paper changes, motif addition/changes, graphic design/artwork, multiple ink colors, embellishments, and other options such as second run (printing on the back), die-cutting, edge painting and plying.
