Prelude

Weddings are such an exciting time. You found the one whom your soul can not live without! You are both madly in love and can not wait to plan your dream wedding adventure and to tie the knot and be together forever! Whether it be a beach destination wedding or a backwoods country wedding, it will be your magical day! Your wedding will be a day that you both look back on years and years down the road. It will be a day you will talk about with your children and their children after that. You will talk about the smell of the perfume you picked, the taste of your cake, and you will feel the love and tenderness that you felt by everyone every time your wedding day comes up. Your wedding photos will be a part of your legacy. I want to capture your day in full, so that your legacy may be shown in a pure and authentic way. I aim to capture the smiles, the smells, and colors of your very special day. I strive to offer affordable wedding photography so that you may cherish your wedding day and the photos we capture for years to come! I want you to feel comfortable and carefree on your special day. With 10 years of experience, I know what details you want taken care of, I know your timeline and order of events. I have your back and your best interest! I can't wait to talk to you about your dream wedding, and make sure you get the photographs you deserve.
