

Complete Package:                   $375

This is the most popular option. It includes:

- a completely customized ceremony
- you may choose any or all of the ceremony components from provided planning materials or outside sources
- you may include one or more readings shared by the officiant, friends or family
- you may include traditions such as a sand ceremony, hand-fastening, or unity candle
- an in-person planning meeting, with follow-up phone and email planning
- you may completely review the ceremony prior to your wedding day and suggest any edits
- you may write your own vows
- travel up to 30 miles from Ridgely, MD
- information on how to obtain the marriage license prior to your wedding
- performing the ceremony
- filing the marriage license after the ceremony
- information on how to change your name if applicable

Lite Package:                         $275

This is perfect for a couple who wants a shorter ceremony, or who is not interested in customizing the ceremony. This package includes:

- choosing between three pre-written ceremonies
- consultation via a phone call, Skype, Duo, or other video chat
- travel up to 30 miles from Ridgely, MD
- information on how to obtain the marriage license prior to your wedding
- performing the ceremony
- filing the marriage license after the ceremony
- information on how to change your name if applicable

\*The lite package does not include an in-person planning meeting, traditions such as a sand ceremony, hand-fastening or unity candle, or including friends or family to share a reading.***

Rehearsal:                             $100

If you would like me to attend a rehearsal the day before your ceremony, this adds $100 to either package above, not including travel beyond 30 miles from Ridgely.

Friends and Family Package:     $300

This option is ideal for couples who would like to have a friend or family member marry them, but are unsure how to write a ceremony. This package is very similar to the complete package, except I do not perform the ceremony. This package includes:

- information on how your proposed officiant can become ordained online
- a completely customized ceremony
- you may choose any or all of the ceremony components from provided planning materials or outside sources
- you may include one or more readings shared by the officiant, friends or family
- you may include traditions such as a sand ceremony, hand-fasting, or unity candle
- an in-person planning meeting with the couple and the proposed officiant, with follow-up phone and email planning
- you may completely review the ceremony prior to your wedding day and suggest any edits
- writing your own vows if you choose
- travel up to 30 miles from Ridgely, MD for planning
- information on how to obtain the marriage license prior to your wedding
- practical tips for the proposed officiant to perform the ceremony
- a printed copy of the ceremony and all vows/readings for the officiant – this is in a binder or folder that is appropriate for your wedding ceremony
- information on how to file the marriage license after the ceremony
- information on how to change your name if applicable
