ABOUT US

“We Are Photographers for the Dreamers”

- William & Sara Hall

We are William & Sara Hall, husband & wife wedding photographers with a combined 20 years of experience capturing beautiful moments for clients throughout New England. Clients who work with us enter a relationship where any and all obstacles surrounding the photographic experience are solved. We are highly skilled at finding the right angles, the most flattering light and working with all personality types to bring out the best in you, your vendors and your guests. With a background in fine art, we have blended a passion for photography with a deep intuition for beauty to create a distinctive style that sets us apart. Inspired by businesses who have perfected the art of customer service and impeccable product delivery we bring a unique approach to each wedding we are a part of. We deeply care about crafting personal and authentic narratives for our clients while removing layers of stress that have traditionally been associated with the wedding planning and photographic process. We believe that every couple has a unique relationship and a story waiting to be told through the lens. Our goal is to capture the essence of that connection, freezing intimate moments, energy and emotions in time.
