Thank you for choosing Wanderlust Travel Boutique, LLC. Your travel experience is very important to us, and we dedicate significant time and resources crafting your proposal. For research, planning, and design services on all travel experiences, we charge an upfront, non-refundable planning fee of $100. This covers our research time and our significant educational resources to select the perfect resort, package, or cruise to fit the budget and goals for your travel experience. When appropriate, we will also provide itineraries that include travel insurance, excursions, transfers/transportation, and flights. You are welcome to book any part of your package on your own, although it is our intention to provide excellent service and value throughout your travel process. We are here for the initial planning stages, booking your reservations, providing support during your travel, and will welcome you home after your trip-of-a-lifetime.

Please note that the travel plan provided by Wanderlust Travel Boutique, LLC is a quote and prices and availability are subject to change until complete reservation deposit is processed and Wanderlust Travel Boutique, LLC has confirmed your reservation.

Total non-refundable fee: $100

The $100 non-refundable fee will be credited towards your deposit when you make your reservation. Wanderlust Travel Boutique, LLC will retain the entire deposit even if no deposits or reservations are processed through our agency. The fee is good for a period of 30 days from date of fee payment.

You will be sent an email with a PayPal request for the fee. Once that is received we can begin planning your trip.

I agree with the terms and conditions herein and engage Wanderlust Travel Boutique, LLC to research my vacation plans. I understand that this fee is non-refundable, whether or not I move forward with the travel plan provided by Wanderlust Travel Boutique, LLC, or decide to book travel myself or with another travel partner.
