

A LITTLE SOMETHING TO START OFF WITH:

Hi + Hi + Hello!!
First of all, thank you SO much for reaching out with your inquiry. It is a dream come true that I get to continue doing what I love most while meeting the BEST people. Being invited into your love story is an honor that I won't take lightly. Choosing a photographer to capture your big day is A BIG DEAL. Seriously. When I talk to potential clients I let them know that when choosing a photographer, you are choosing the person that you two will collectively spend the most time with on your big day. My job doesn't just entail clicking a button + creating a pretty picture (although of course I have those down). But my job is truly all encompassing. When choosing me, you are choosing an experience from beginning to end. I will be your biggest cheerleader, your confidence boost, and your constant reminder that the day is about you two + the love you share. My job goes far beyond just showing up to take pictures the day of ( I got you covered there). I really do cherish the relationships with my clients + the confidence that it brings my couples throughout the whole year long process. Long story short, I am here for you. To create, to inspire, + to capture your love story in all its beauty.

LETS START WITH THE BASICS

OKAY so now that I have shared a glimpse into my heart + vision for what I do, lets just get into a basic overview of my investment pricing. Below are my 3 wedding packages.

This outlines what is included in each tier as well as additional add ons if necessary. If there are any questions at all please do not hesitate to ask. This is an important investment + one that I want you to feel as comfortable/confident in as I do.

All My Best,
Kenna

QUESTIONS? LET'S CHAT

There is a lot to unpack and go over and I don't want to let anything about this process overwhelm you. SO, the next step would be scheduling a FaceTime so that we can meet, go over this guide, and talk vision. It is MUCH easier to move forward with peace about a decision as important as this after meeting. + getting to know each other. Sometimes, (who am I kidding), MOST of the time typing behind a keyboard just doesn't do it justice.

Email me with any questions, comments, concerns + let's set up that FaceTime.

All the best,
Kenna
