Be Still Photography Va

Stafford, VA and International Weddings

Hi There!

I got married in October of 2017. It was the best day of my life. It was also a pretty stressful one. I was overwhelmed by the amount of money required to finance our perfect day. At the time I had been working as a portrait photographer for about ten years. One thing was clear; it was time for me to make a switch.

I have always been a storyteller. I love capturing the details of someone's love story. My goal is simple: I want to provide my clients with affordable art photography of their wedding day. Everyone deserves to look back on their wedding day and feel like they had the best experience possible without endangering their family's financial stability.

Meet Keri

Your Wedding Photographer

I am a coffee addict. In fact, about the only time I'm not holding a cup of coffee is when I'm holding a camera.

My background is in Clinical Psychology. Few things fascinate me quite so much as the human mind. This background also means that I can manage any wedding jitters that come your way!

On weekends when I'm not photographing weddings, family sessions, or portraits you can generally find me at home on the couch with the love of my life. We're most likely playing board games or catching up on our latest Netflix obsession. (We're big nerds).

I have dedicated over 800 hours to non-profit organizations all over the world. I have worked with underprivileged children, homeless shelters, local ministries, and women's shelters. I plan to always continue giving my time, work, and attention to local nonprofits.

Frequently Asked Questions

Where are you located? Do you travel?

My home base is in Stafford, VA. I LOVE to travel. The first 25 miles are free, after that a small travel fee will be applied.

How long can you be booked?

I have packages ranging from 4 hours of coverage to a full day. There is a package for every bride in every situation. We can also custom build your package because every bride and their needs are different.

What services are included?

Every wedding package we have comes with coverage from two lead photographers. Additionally, you will be given digital copies of all of your edited images in a personalized online gallery. Additional goodies are included in larger packages or you can add them from our a la carte menu. All weddings also come with a complimentary engagement session.

How do you manage the deposit and payment?

A 30% deposit holds your wedding date in my calendar. That deposit is non-refundable. Remainder of your full payment is due 2 weeks before your wedding date.

How many pictures of our wedding will we get?

You will receive all of the edited images from your wedding day. I usually deliver between 150-1000 images depending on the length of the wedding. All photos will be sorted in your online gallery for ease of access.

When will our photos be available?

Your photos will be edited and returned within four weeks of your wedding date.

Can we get a sneak peek?

Absolutely! The day after the wedding we will post a few pictures to Instagram. A few days later a blog post will be up on our website with 10-15 images of your day.

You mentioned an online gallery. How does this work?

Your personalized online gallery is released within four weeks of your wedding date. It will include all of the images from your special day. These pictures will be ready for download without watermarks or extra costs. From this website you can also order prints and albums from your online gallery.

How far should we book in advance?

Many couples book us more than 7 months in advance, but there are also some spontaneous requests. The truth is that the earlier you book your photographer, the better your chances of your date still being available. Contact your photographer as soon as your date is set.
