

THE WEDDING GUIDE

SARAH YATES PHOTO

WELCOME

Hi, I'm Sarah

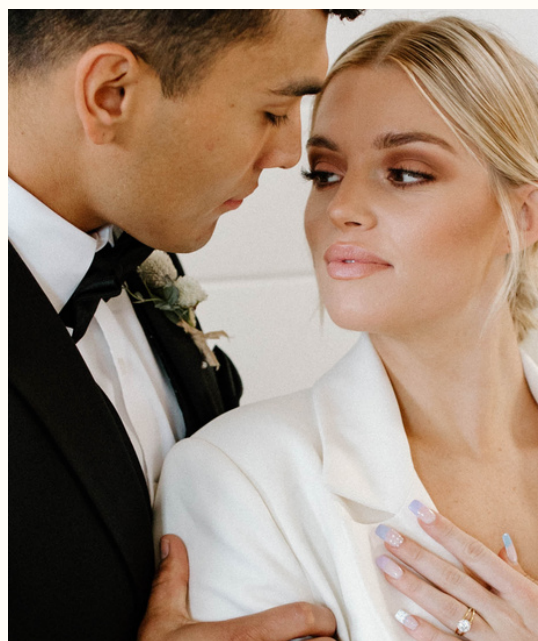

I'm a photo-journalistic wedding photographer based in Southern California. I've been photographing wedding days and traveling the country for work for the past few years and it's my biggest joy in life.

My goal is to get to know you and your love story, your vision for your wedding day, and understand your love through and through. I will capture your wedding day as it is — beautiful, thoughtful, and joyful. My editing is true-to-life — your colors will be honestly documented and your love will shine.

A little bit about me? I love the beach, music, reading, and of course, I'm on the hunt for the perfect caramel latte. I was raised in Minnesota, spent my springtime on the beaches of Florida, and reside in coastal California. I'm married to my college sweetheart and together we have the cutest (yes, I'm very very biased) son whom we love and adore.

Documenting your love is an investment. Your love isn't cheap, it's cherished — and so should be your wedding photographs. Let's make your most precious moments last a lifetime.

xo, Sarah

THE EXPERIENCE

"I wouldn't hesitate to hire her!"

"Sarah asked insightful, pointed questions to get to know us and to make sure that she could properly help that vision come to life. It instantly felt like I was talking with an old friend. (And she was SO easy to contact and quick to respond in the weeks leading up to our wedding). Sarah and her second shooter arrived well-prepared on the day-of and made us feel comfortable and at ease. Even when parts of the day didn't go according to plan, they rolled with the punches and were incredibly joyful. The next day, Sarah began sending gorgeous sneak-peeks of our photos and we received our entire gallery not long after. I was thrilled with the quality of the experience (and the pictures!). Her talent as well as her dedication to her clients is evident in the beautiful work she produces; I wouldn't hesitate to hire her!"

THE EXPERIENCE

"Working with Sarah was literally the dream"

"Working with Sarah was literally the dream, with how incredibly responsive she was in communicating, how happy she was to help with anything I could think of, and what a hype woman and friend she was throughout the whole process, at the engagement pics and especially on our special day!! I had read before that the photographer is someone you spend the most time with on your wedding day, so to me it was really important to be someone I wanted to spend time with, and that rang so true with Sarah and her second shooter. They're with you for it all, and in all the best ways. They were professional yet fun, friends to everyone around, and I am still so grateful to have had them!! AND NOT TO MENTION THE PICS MY GOODNESS!!! Pictures are an investment for a reason, and this is for sure an investment you'd want to make, it's about 6 months later and I still can't get over them! Can't recommend Sarah and her team enough, this is a company and especially a group of people I can get behind any day, you'd want them for your special day too!"

A black and white photograph of a bride holding a bouquet of flowers. The bride is wearing a white wedding dress with a lace train and a dark jacket. The bouquet is composed of various white flowers, including chrysanthemums, roses, and hydrangeas, with long, thin greenery accents. The text "WEDDING PACKAGES" is overlaid in the center in a white, serif font.
