 Athens - Santorini

“ Photography of genuine human emotion ”

With these few words from Cezary and Rana from US I share with you my vision and goal , as a wedding photographer for you when real emotion matters more than posing.

I am a freelance photographer since 1998 travelling all around Greece for hotels, magazines and editions and I moved from Athens to Santorini island in 2008 in order to travel less and have a nice family My office and studio is in Messaria of Santorini and you are welcome to meet here anytime of the year to exchange ideas and speak about your wedding.

Me and my team provide professional photography services and we really enjoy our creations. The prices of the services include real time shooting, selection and editing. The pictures are sent by wetransfer in high resolution to download and if needed by post in usb or dvds
