I hold you in my heart, now and forever.”

First and foremost,

congratulations on your engagement!

What an exciting and exhilarating time of your lives. Through the whirlwind of planning and meetings; tastings and guest-list makings, it can be easy to get lost in the frill of it all. Remember to have fun & enjoy the process. Take it all in, let down your hair and enjoy the ride. Life is made up of moments, don't forget to celebrate the ones in between. For they are what builds us up, makes us strong, brings us together and makes us who we are. They are what brought us to this moment, so lets say 'Heck Yea!' to today and the moments yet to come!

Hello!

I think its important for us to get to know one another a little bit, so 'I'd like to take a minute, just sit right there, I'll tell you how I became [a wedding photograph-aire]'.
[Note: The original text contains a typo 'aire' which has been corrected to 'aire' in the transcription.]

... see what I did there? it kinda works, maybe? anyways ...

I'm Natalie. I am currently based in an old craftsman style home in the country west of Milwaukee. I love to travel and can't wait for my next adventure. When asked red or white, the answer is, yes. I have degrees in architecture, art history and literature, all of which contribute to my never-ending thirst for knowledge. I have a love and affinity for the early morning light that peeks through my kitchen windows, Jane Austen, thoughtful design, sarcasm, rock climbing, hiking, making someone smile, laughing so hard I'm convinced I'm working out my abs, pausing mid-run to look at the sky, graphic design, dad jokes, ice cream, thunderstorms, dresses, harry potter, crafting, star gazing, ethically sourced clothing, breakfast for dinner, making sound effects, free shipping, family, singing while driving, elephants, airports, heated blankets, good company and fine conversation.

Philosophy

Three: Seventeen was born out of the passion of a grateful heart.
Forged by the desire to celebrate the process, the journey, & the moments in between,

Three: Seventeen photography lives to tell your story.

Always learning, constantly exploring, and forever enjoying the creative process, I pursue authenticity, simplicity & the beauty of shared hearts.

Three: Seventeen photography's namesake comes from the verse Colossians 3:17, through which my heart celebrates the mission of using the gifts I have to contribute to others' joy while living grateful and true.

This is my mission.

This is the mission of Three: Seventeen Photography.

Extract great joy from the smallest of moments, be kind, live gratefully and use what I've got to enrich those around me.

I see it as an honor to partake in each and every photo adventure and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for allowing me the opportunity to share in your special life moments!

"Natalie was great! We did our engagement shoot with her in October. She gave us exactly what we were looking for, natural and in the moment pictures that really captured us as a couple! We couldn't be more happy with how the photos turned out! Highly recommend Natalie!"

Kelly + AJ

"Our engagement and wedding photos turned out amazing and we really couldn't be happier with our experience."

Courtney + Brandon

A wedding couple is standing on a rocky shore at sunset. The bride is wearing a white dress and the groom is wearing a dark vest and white shirt. They are looking at each other. The sky is filled with soft, golden light and scattered clouds. The water is visible in the background, and the foreground is dominated by large, dark rocks.

"Natalie was an AMAZING photographer for our wedding! I would and have recommended her to all of my friends, and have seen her work several other weddings as well. She is incredibly professional and worked tirelessly all day for our big event, even pitching in with help setting up and tearing down. At the same time she had my bridesmaids and I laughing all day and was truly part of the joyful experience of our big day.

Our photos were available soon after the wedding and each and every one of them was truly beautiful. Natalie knows how to capture the essence and personality of the couples she works with, and my hubby and I will treasure our wedding photos for the rest of our lives!"

Brynn + Matt

"We cannot thank Natalie enough for doing our wedding photography. She captured all of the beautiful moments with a professional and fun attitude. She has the perfect eye for picking out candid moments that you don't want to forget! The quality of her work is absolutely amazing. We are so grateful that Natalie was a part of our big day!"

What to Expect

Getting to know you is so important. I love meeting one-on-one to chat about how you would like your day documented and also for us to get acquainted. This has proven essential in capturing genuine moments and reflecting your personalities in the photos.

I want you to be able to relax and enjoy the day to the fullest. To ensure this, we will work together before the big day in putting together a timeline, a family shot list and any last minute schedule adjustments. I am for you and I am here to help your wedding day experience to be the absolute best!

Frequently Asked Questions

How would you describe your style?

I describe myself as a Natural Light Lifestyle Photographer. I like to capture genuine emotion and I seek out those in-between moments that truly tell the story of the day.

How long does it take for us to receive our photos?

During the slow season, my turnaround time is 4-6 weeks and 6-8 weeks during the busy season, but I always send spoilers before hand and then let you know when the rest are good and ready.

Can I upload my wedding photos on Social Media?

Absolutely! You can use any of your photos as long as you promise not to alter them in any way.

What's in your camera bag?

I use a couple of Canon 5D Mark iii's with an array prime and telephoto lenses.

Can I have the raw files/the unedited photos?

No can do! I'm sorry, but you will only receive the edited images. I go through all the photos taken the day of and pick the very best. I then edit them with my styling and deliver them to you.

How many wedding photos will I get?

Typically, I deliver anywhere from 300-500 edited images depending on the amount of coverage.

Do you have any advice from a Photographer's perspective for our wedding day?

Think about the setting, the details and the subtleties. Go ahead and splurge on that awesome hotel room or unique location for your getting ready photos. Keep tidy. Try to keep lighting as natural as possible by choosing locations with ample windows or simply outdoors. Try to avoid colored laser lights from your DJ at the reception. But most importantly, remember to enjoy your day and not stress. If by the end of the day you both say 'I do!' the day was a complete success!

Engagement Sessions

Each couple is unique in their own way, and I firmly believe the engagement session is key in allowing both of you to truly shine on your special day. The engagement session allows us a chance to work together and for you to become comfortable in front of the camera. It allows you to showcase your personalities and love for one another in a more casual setting, while creating lovely and fun memories!

Adventure Session
