

The Atrium

at the Peabody Essex Museum

The breathtaking Atrium is the heart of the museum. An arched glass roof soars dramatically overhead, pulling the eye and the spirit upward. This central gathering place recalls the traditional New England village green.

Cocktails

7–8 pm (earliest start time)

Dinner and dancing

8 pm–midnight

Enjoy cocktails with the feel of the outdoors and a view of the sky followed by dinner and dancing in this dramatic space.

Guest count from 50 to 250 people

*Rental $6,800 Friday–Sunday nights**

$4,500 Tuesday–Thursday nights

Reception

6:30 or 7 pm (start time)

(earliest start time depending on set-up requirements)

Guest count from 50 to 550 people

*Rental $6,000 Friday–Sunday nights**

(four hours)

$3,500 Tuesday–Thursday nights

(three hours)

\ Price reflects a 20 percent discount on weekend rental rates because of PEM's upcoming expansion project. Discount does not apply to events prior to August 1, 2016. The project will run from August 1, 2016, through 2019, during which time East India Marine Hall, Bartlett and Copeland Galleries, the Asian Garden and spiral staircase will not be accessible.*