Ready for your memories to stand still?

Flash forward with me for a moment. It is 24 hours after your wedding, 5 years after, 30 years after...how do you want to remember the day that started your forever? The day that is a once-in-a-lifetime event surrounded by your true love and those who mean most to you? You will want to relive those moments and emotions, those smiles and tears, and the little details that you put hours of time into. That is what you are investing in. That is what I strive to capture.

*Well hello!
I'm Katie!*

A big-hearted and dedicated advocate for pure love + pure memories :)

I get so giddy (almost too giddy hehe) over photo books, sweet memories, and beautiful people just like you! As someone who thrives on acts of service, I absolutely love the idea of being everything and more for you on your wedding day.

You will be my sole focus. I will fiercely stay true to your plan, your expectations, and your vision because I want to serve YOU in the best way possible. No other influence will lead me astray from YOUR dream. After all, I want you to 100% enjoy your day and to be able to look back with joy on as many little and big moments as possible.

I am going on my 4th year of photographing weddings and I'm absolutely obsessed with this career God has gifted me with! At every single wedding, I have a smile behind the camera as well as tears over heartfelt vows and precious first dances :) I definitely FEEL the day alongside you allowing me to have a perspective to capture your day to the fullest!

"Hiring Katie as my photographer was the best choice I made in wedding planning!"

-Zach + Courtney

My Approach

Here is a bit about the approach that I take, and the experience you're about to have with me...

What I aim to give you is an experience that is more relational than professional. Don't get me wrong, I will still be professional and provide timely communication + quality products! But photography is a very personal thing so I want to create a relationship with you in order for your memories to be fully and wholeheartedly YOU. My art is best when I understand you, your vision, and your love more than what a "strictly business" relationship would.

All in all, my approach is one that centers on comfort, conversation, and joy! That is how the photos become more about your connection than just a pretty picture:)

Kind Words

"Having Katie as our photographer for our engagement shoot and wedding was such an easy decision. She was so friendly and professional throughout the whole process. She helped with creating our timeline and keeping us on track the day of. She kept us in the loop with updates before and after the wedding. The way she handled herself the day of our wedding was so calming for me as a stressed bride. Our family cannot stop talking about how easy she made big group/family photos! We absolutely love every photo she took and sent us. Katie knew how to choose the perfect spot and get us to feel the most comfortable taking pictures. Thank you to Katie for being so helpful and supportive throughout our process!"

-Trevor + Laurel

A bride and groom are standing in a grassy field at sunset. The bride is wearing a white lace wedding dress and the groom is wearing a black tuxedo. They are holding hands and looking at each other. The background is filled with tall grasses and trees, with the sun setting behind them, creating a warm, golden glow.

Second Shooter

"Katie was such a partner to me in planning the wedding and such a great help on the day of the wedding. She truly cared to get to know me and understand what vision I wanted for my wedding photos. We were so happy when we got them back they were organized into different parts of the day so it was easy to find certain moments. Let alone they were GORGEOUS and so perfectly captured our day. She captured all the big and small moments so perfectly! Highly recommend!"

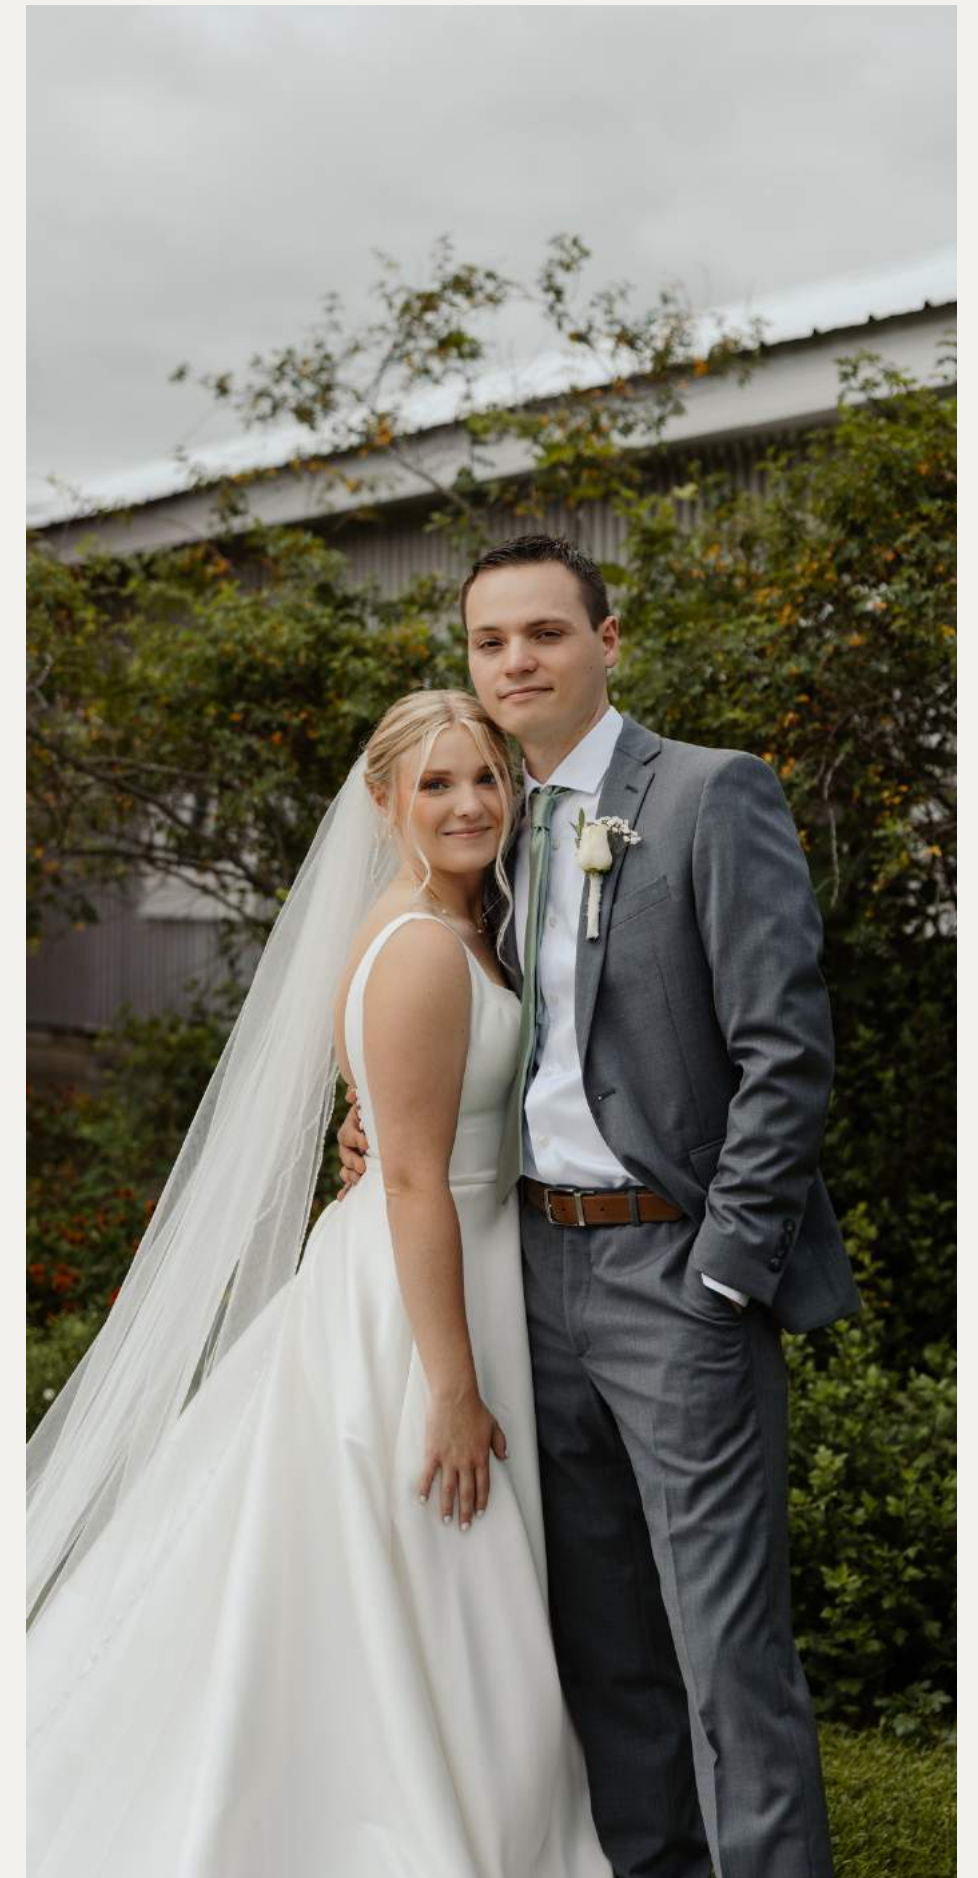

-Zach + Courtney

While I can easily shoot a wedding solo, here's why your wedding may need a second shooter:

A second shooter would be perfect for you if you plan to have a longer wedding day with more hours of photography coverage and if your day will have a lot of moving parts (which could include having 300+ guests). Other reasons would be if you want more angles of your day such as for the ceremony, reception, first look, etc! You would naturally get more candid + reaction shots as well due to the second shooter being able to observe the day more than direct the day photo wise.

*Must match the hours of photo coverage you chose for your wedding day

Here's why I believe that a Wedding Album is going to make a difference in this experience for you.

Photos that stay on an online gallery, a USB, or your phone don't get as much love as if they were in a physical album easily available and ready to be held and oooed at.

You are investing so much into your photos! Having a beautiful heirloom piece on your coffee table will allow your memories to be looked back upon more frequently and your day to be cherished even more! Now you + your spouse can comb through them again and again as well as family and friends that come visit :)

Your 26 page, 10x10, leather album will be shipped right to you with a beautiful white linen cover ready to be put on display for all to see!

I loved how thoughtful she was in our experience and in asking what we were expecting! It can be overwhelming to communicate expectations when I have never been through the process of hiring a photographer before but she made it very clear and helped me consider things I didn't even realize I needed to think about! She was prepared and also able to roll with the punches of the day. With the weather not cooperating how we expected, she made the most of it and found creative solutions to our setbacks.

FAQs

How do I get my photos back?

Your images will be delivered through an online gallery where you can download and share directly from your private site. The photos will be categorized by each moment of the day for ease of viewing. I will also be mailing you a custom USB as well as a few other surprises in that package :)

Do you offer prints?

Your online gallery that I share with you will have an option to choose and buy prints directly from that site to be printed and delivered to you! Everything is in one place for you :)

Have you shot at my venue before, and how do you know it will work for you?

For every wedding venue I haven't yet seen, I show up early to scout the best shooting locations on-site. That said, I truly have worked with so many different types of venues, I know fairly quickly where the best shooting locations are after a short scouting walk!

Can we see a few of your most recent galleries?

Of course! Just contact me and I can then choose which one would most closely match your venue/location so that you get a better vision of what your photos would look like :)

How do you pose us? We have no clue what to do.

I always come ready with fun prompts that include movement and natural posing! I do not expect you to be professional models. I will guide you where to put your hands, where to look, and what to do :) Just relax! I got you!

Kind Words

"We hired Katie for our 5/21/2022 wedding in Michigan. My husband and I cannot say enough good things about Katie! She was amazing throughout our entire wedding process and was really helpful with putting together our wedding day timeline, as I had no idea where to even begin! Katie was extremely professional, down to earth, kind and easy to work with! All of our family members kept mentioning how sweet she was during our wedding day! Katie shot our engagement photos and they all turned out beautifully and we had such a blast with her during our shoot! We loved all of the photos and couldn't wait to see her shoot our wedding day! Katie did not disappoint! Our photos were stunning! And she got our photos back to us extremely quickly! We would highly recommend her to anyone looking for a photographer!"
