

CORAH B PHOTOGRAPHY

Hey I'm Corah!

And I like feelings.

A weird way to start but it's the truth!

I value the connection you and your partner have and am dedicated to bringing your unique love to life and capturing YOU through photographs.

I am marriage focused, fighting for love, and dedicated to pursuing your connection.

Crazy about people, crazy about each other, excited to capture your incredible wedding day

I connect with people so focused on each other they hardly notice me third wheeling

I connect with the honesty of the way you love each other that is what I'm truly passionate about now let's make some magic happen.

CUSTOM PACKAGES

AVERAGE STARTING PRICE:

$3,250

Made just for you.

No two weddings are alike, as someone who has photographed and been a part of dozens of weddings: I can testify. So I work with every client to create a timeline that works for them, and their vision for the wedding day.

Destination micro weddings, mountainous elopements, or a local wedding day! I work with you to get a custom package based on your needs for your wedding day!

DUBUQUE, IOWA

With COVID-19 all other planning fell to the wayside as we decided to be nimble, enjoy our engagement and not sweat the small stuff. Corah rolled with the punches and our inability to make decisions and get organized. Most importantly are the beautiful images this girl captured! She captured intimate, authentic, precious moments of my husband, myself and our guests. When I look at these photos, I remember the love, laughter and joy I felt that day.

CEDAR FALLS, IOWA

During all of our shoots she seemed as if she was our best friend just hanging out with us! My husband never felt awkward, and yes, she did get REAL smiles out of him! And hey, that's saying something! Men don't get into character like us women do! The day of the wedding she was my go to! She doesn't hesitate to help with anything!

IOWA CITY, IOWA

Not only did our family rave about her but we truly felt we couldn't have chosen a better person to capture our day. All of our pictures really show the love and happiness we share and my husband and I (that don't normally like taking pictures) couldn't be more excited to work with Corah again next year at our larger celebration!! We have already hired her again, that's how great she is!

DESTINATION

Starting at $ 1000

Are you on the more adventurous side, and want to get out of the midwest? Lets chat about a destination session! Whether a killer wedding or elopement location, or traveling for your engagement or family session! On average, the expense is $1,000 for flights, stay, rental car, and food for the trip. I always bring my hubby along, so this covers his stay as well.

COUPLES

Starting at $ 350

This includes anniversary, just because photos, and engagements! Make it a fun date night, we'll grab coffee or go out for drinks and run around and get in the feels together.

FAMILIES

Starting at $ 350

Your love doesn't end after you wed, it grows into little humans running around, or being announced and welcomed into the world. This love is even more important to document over the years as it grows into their own loves and flourishes into a beautiful new generation of love stories.
