

Live event and wedding painting is a one of a kind way to capture the magical feeling of your big day. This beautiful piece of art will represent the start of your life together and will become an heirloom to remember your special event for all time. You and your guests will be entertained and engaged throughout the day as you watch it all come together.

PROCESS

How It Works

Before Your Big Day

We'll set the scene! I'll send you a questionnaire to help us dial in all the important details (pose, scene, colors, guests) to be featured in your painting.

Day Of

I will set up an hour or two before your event and get started with background details. As the event continues, you and your guests will delight in watching the details come into shape. By the end of your wedding, you'll have a keepsake to always remember the day.

Post Wedding

Certain packages include hours of editing in my studio in which case you'll have your painting within 6 weeks after your wedding.

FAQ'S

What type of materials are used?

High quality acrylics on canvas. paint is nontoxic, dries quickly and allows for easy clean up.

What do you need at the venue?

I'll only need about 6 x 6 feet of space for my easel, access to water, and a view of the scene I will be painting. I will also need an outlet for indoor/night events. I set up so that guests can see the scene unfolding!

What is your artistic style?

My style can be described as impressionistic and loose with some attention to realism and detail. Art is personal so please explore the gallery to see if it's a style that you will enjoy for years to come. Please visit www.kpotterfineart.com to peruse my gallery.

How do I book?

Once we confirm your date, then you'll choose your package, approve the quote (which may include travel fees). I send you a contract and invoice for 25% deposit. Once those are all returned, you are booked!

I have a special request.

I love to be flexible and accommodating. Please ask!

What if you're booked for my date?

I'd be happy to create a wedding painting for you from photos. Contact me to get started.

Will you travel?

I like to say, "Have Easel, will travel!"

Add $0.50 per mile outside of Park and Gallatin Counties.

For destination locations more than 3 hours away from Livingston MT: Add $300 for lodging and travel. This rate may vary depending on location and season.

BIO

Kay Potter lives in Livingston, Montana. Some of her fondest memories as a child are of her and her Dad drawing flowers together at the kitchen table. She grew up surrounded by the Bridger Mountains in Bozeman. After a short stint in Georgia to attend art school, she returned to make Montana her permanent home, choosing Livingston as the place to set up roots.

Kay's artistic style varies, but most often contains within it a sense of childlike wonder, imagery and colors. She cares deeply about the world around her and the people in it and this is reflected in the uplifting perspective of her paintings and multimedia work.

Kay believes that art helps us create joyful experiences and environments and is honored to work towards this end. As a professional artist since 2014, Kay has enjoyed opportunities to share her work with the public through open houses and high visibility projects, has enjoyed creating keepsakes for her clients, and has collaborated with many clients turned friends. She is dedicated both to her craft and to making art that much more approachable..
