The Renaissance Rose

Wedding at Norfolk Botanical Garden

Renaissance Rose Concierge Service Our professional and experienced venue coordinators are here to assist you throughout the planning process and to ensure that your wedding day is a success!

Private Venue Tour Schedule a complimentary appointment with one of our venue coordinators for a private tour of the Garden's wedding and reception venues and review all of your wedding package options.

The Planning Process Planning your dream wedding will be very exciting, but with all of the decisions and logistical details it can also become overwhelming. Our staff is here to help make the planning process a stress-free experience. We are happy to answer questions, provide suggestions, and act as a liaison for all venue-related concerns throughout the wedding planning process. Our team of venue coordinators is a valuable resource and we will work directly with your wedding planner and event vendors to ensure that all of the details are taken care of.

Final Detail Appointment In the final weeks before your wedding, we will schedule a Final Detail Appointment with the newlyweds-to-be and your wedding planner or day-of coordinator. During this mandatory appointment, we will schedule your wedding rehearsal, approve the wedding timeline, and review all logistical details including: the arrival times and responsibilities for all wedding participants, the arrival and setup times for your vendors, the ceremony and reception locations, rain plan options, and delivery schedule of any rentals or wedding-related items. This meeting is essential for a smooth and successful wedding!

Rehearsal During the wedding rehearsal, our staff will be available to review any last-minute questions or details and transport participants with mobility issues to the rehearsal site, as needed.

Wedding Day On your wedding day, our staff will work diligently behind the scenes with your vendors to oversee the setup for your ceremony and reception to ensure that everything is perfect and ready to go on time. We will also greet and direct your guests to the proper locations for the ceremony, cocktail hour and reception. After the ceremony, while your guests enjoy cocktail hour, a venue coordinator will escort the newlyweds and photographer to pre-determined garden locations for photographs. Our staff will be present the entire day to answer questions and assist with any logistical issues that may arise.

Renaissance Rose Package Details This premium wedding package includes our luxurious bridal suite, complete with a private changing room, full-length mirrors and gown hooks, hair and makeup vanity stations, and a comfortable sitting area for the bride and her attendants to use beginning at 10am and throughout the day. We also offer a private classroom with tables, chairs and a full length mirror for the groom and groomsmen beginning at 2pm.

Ceremony Options Garden staff will provide and arrange up to 200 white wedding chairs for the ceremony two hours prior to the ceremony start time. If needed, additional chairs may be rented from one of our exclusive vendors. You may access the outdoor ceremony location beginning at 4pm for any decorating or additional setup that may be required.
