THANK YOU

Welcome

Congratulations on your engagement! Your wedding day is the most special day of your life and capturing each and every moment ensures a lifetime of beautiful memories. From stepping into your gorgeous gown, to walking down the aisle and reciting your vows, to your first few moments as husband and wife, every element of your wedding day plays a part in this treasured story you and your families will cherish forever.

Since you've probably never planned a wedding before, and we're guessing you want to enjoy being in love and engaged, we're happy to do the heavy lifting for you. Timelines, preferred vendors, engagement session location ideas, tips on what to wear at your engagement session, we've got you.

We keep the booking process sweet and simple, we chat in person or on the phone (consultation), we book (online contract and payment options), we shoot (engagement session fun), we party (your wedding day)! To kick off our sweet and simple process, you'll find all of our collection details below.

Investment

To make things easy peasy, we have two standard collection options. We offer additional products a la carte, because we know some couples want wedding day coverage and digital images only. Others want to add fine art prints to hang around their house, or maybe an album to hold their memories. And we want you to have what your heart desires!

Oh and since we love engagement sessions so much, any collection with 8 hours or more wedding day coverage get an engagement session complimentary!

Want a custom quote for your specific wedding needs? Reach out and we can create a photography collection as unique as you are!
