A group of approximately ten people, including bridesmaids and a groom, are walking through a lush tropical grove of palm trees. They are all dressed in white, casual wedding attire. The bridesmaids are wearing short, white, short-sleeved dresses, while the groom is wearing a white t-shirt and white trousers. They are holding champagne flutes and appear to be in a celebratory mood. The background is filled with tall palm trees and dense green foliage.

I love destination weddings! If you're getting married somewhere on my destination wish list, I'm happy to give a discount and work something out for you.

If your wedding is out of the state: I'll try to keep costs as low as possible, but will require two nights accommodation, flight and transportation costs to be covered.
