

I N V E S T M E N T Hello and welcome! We are SO excited you stopped by! You have most likely been planning your wedding day for your entire life. One thought, vision and Pinterest boards at a time. We understand the incredible importance of our job in a wedding day. Thus, we only take on a limited number of weddings each year to ensure that our couples have 100% of our attention, creativity, organization and excitement. We currently offer all day coverage, from the beginning of your day until all the important reception festivities have taken place. We will be by your side, capturing every important moment along with every little detail that you have put into your special day! I do not believe in setting a time limit for a wedding.

Our approach and goal is to create a natural, relaxed set of images that will tell your story of your wedding day. Prior to booking, we will set up a free consultation where we will discuss all the details you have in mind and answer any questions you may have. It's important that our personalities mesh and that you're comfortable with us. This meeting can take anywhere from an hour to two but don't worry.. I LOVE hearing all about your plans! This is your wedding, your dream day and I want to accommodate your needs as best as I can.
