Fun, Love & Romance Options

Enhanced Introductions – when introducing the wedding party, we tell about their relationship to you, give biographical data such as their hobbies, your favorite memories of them, and cherished moments, and play a song that suits each person

Love Story – with music, sound effects, and voice-overs, we take you and your guests on an audio journey as we share the story of how you met, your dating relationship, when you fell in love, and the proposal

Custom Recordings/Voice-Overs – record a surprise message to your parent that we custom edit and blend with music that is played during the father-daughter or mother-son dance

Sweetheart Messages – you separately record special messages to each other that we custom edit and blend with music, so the first time you hear each other's words is when you hold one another on the dance floor during your first dance
