

Lierre Bridal Accessories was opened after trying to help someone find high quality pieces without a high mark up. We searched high and low and between traditional retail and online shopping, we failed to find the uniqueness we searched for.

I decided I could do better.

We may have begun as bridal only but due to our clientele asking for more it evolved. We added new collections that ranged from gemstones to ancient Roman Glass. We added a section of products that we call 'Great looks for Less' with the products costing less than $30.00.

The majority of our pieces are

.925 Sterling Silver (some pieces are not but it will be clearly detailed in the product description.)

We offer our clients a lot of pearl jewelry that is real as we don't like faux pearls. As before, the product description will clearly say 'freshwater cultured pearl' or 'freshwater pearl' in the description.

Our goals and pledge to you

We aren't a company who posts products and hopes for the best. We hand select our pieces because we want you to fall in love with it, wear it over and over again, and then have that same piece become an heirloom so your loved one can remember how special and unique you are.

Free Shipping on every product!

If you live in the domestic USA you can take advantage of it by using the code FREESHIPPING in the checkout area. Most items can be shipped within two business days. We can't guarantee that it is detailed on every product page but have a little faith and remember to type it in at checkout.
