

ENZI DE STEFANO
PHOTOGRAPHY

For me, photography is like magic. It is the tool that lets us travel in time to a certain moment or people.

I love being a wedding photographer because I can see other people's feelings and emotions and that's such a unique moment. Sometimes parents are crying or laughing, kids are running everywhere, sometimes the bride is all nervous but sometimes she is so excited and happy that she doesn't even feel stressed. You can see so many different flowers, the beautiful cake, but the most important part, is that you get to see all the love around.

Because in the end, all you have left is love and the memories that come with it.

Thank you for your trust and support
