

YOUR
PLANNING & PRICING
GUIDE

Congratulations

Now that you have a beautiful ring to show everyone, the questions start coming. Have you set a date? Do you have a venue? Are you having a big or small wedding? Who's in your wedding party? It can all be overwhelming. That's where a wedding planner comes in. My goal is to take all this stress and make this the best season of your life yet.

Blooming Arrows approach is to provide you with a well-organized strategy to ensure that every detail is being addressed. This is done by keeping you on schedule with placing orders and scheduling vendors. I use an in-house scheduling system and Google Docs to offer you access to every part of your planning at any time. We will work as a team to accomplish the vision you have imagined.

Wedding styles vary from couple to couple and no one style is right or wrong. If your goal is a boho, farmhouse, traditional, elegant, unique theme or simply an outdoor wedding, I can assist with the design to make your day exactly what you've dreamed of.

Budgets are always a big topic with any wedding and yours will be no different. I pride myself on being able to take your budget and work with you and your family to prioritize your wants with your budget. The last thing anyone wants is to add stress when the wedding is over budget. I will never push you to increase your budget. As you look through the planning and pricing guide, be sure to write down any questions you have. I will be happy to answer each and every question at your one-hour consultation.

This is my story

My story is really His story! When we moved to North Carolina in 2021, to be close to our family and return to my husband's hometown, I never dreamed He would set a path before me to begin my own wedding planning business. Even as I type this, I am in awe of the opportunity He has placed before me.

Once we made Kings Mountain our home, God began placing people in my life who had upcoming weddings. It wasn't until a friend asked me to assist with her wedding plans, which quickly led to a second client, that I knew and felt complete peace that this was His plan not mine. I have chosen to listen and follow this path to honor and glorify Him.

I believe getting married should be one of the most extraordinary days of your life. My goal is to make sure that happens. I have planned friends and family weddings for the past 20 years. Planning events and helping others has always been my passion. Over the years, I have planned hundreds of events including weddings, receptions, showers, banquets and more.

I am blessed to be married to my best friend who loves and supports all my ideas. We have a beautiful blended family with four grown children and two granddaughters. My family is everything!

When I am not busy planning weddings, I enjoy spending time with my husband on the lake, snuggling with our two toy Aussies, being a mom to our grown children, and getting to enjoy my favorite title as GiGi. People often ask what keeps me going. That's easy...Jesus, Family, Friends, and COFFEE!

'I will instruct you in the way of wisdom and lead you along straight paths'.
