ANGELIKA MARIE

I am just a girl who fell in love with all things beauty while secretly rummaging through my mother's vanity as a child. I was fascinated by the idea that you could make subtle or drastic changes almost instantly and that I could fit my mood to whatever I was feeling that day. Beauty is my creative outlet, the face and hair are my canvas and the makeup and styling products are my medium.

I began my hair and makeup career as a stylist in a salon which was amazing but it wasn't until I had my first bride that I knew I wanted to explore more about being a special event stylist. What I've learned over the years is that not everyone is cut out for weddings. Being a wedding stylist and makeup artist requires a certain caliber of customer service, organization, endurance, and ability to handle stressful timelines & different personalities with grace and hospitality but I knew that after doing my first wedding over 3 years ago that I wanted to be a part of a bride's special day, over and over again! It's a true honor to be apart LOVE day!

FAQ

1. Where are you located and are you willing to travel?

I currently reside in Marietta, Ga but consider all of Northern Georgia to be my "office" since I provide on location services, with 30 miles of travel included. I am happy to travel anywhere beyond Northern Georgia as well if you should desire to have me be a part of your wedding day or event, just be advised that additional travel costs will be discussed.

2. How do I secure my wedding date?

I require a $150 'Save Your Date' Deposit (non-refundable) for all weddings. This deposit will towards the day of your wedding... and just to give you an idea, I typically book 3-4 months in advance but I have booked as early as 12 months prior to the wedding day.

3. Do you require a minimum?

Yes, I require a $400 minimum in wedding day services for Saturday and Sunday wedding events. Trial Sessions are not included in order to meet the weekend minimum.

4. What is a trial session?

Simply put, a trial session is an appointment prior to your wedding day to try out hair and makeup looks you've been pinning on Pinterest since before you even got engaged! It is also an opportunity for you to meet me, for us to get to know one another, for you to see how your hair and makeup will look on your wedding day, and give me a chance to explore your hair and face. The trial run is separate from your wedding day in that it is treated as a regular hair and makeup appointment, so the trial fee is paid at the conclusion of the appointment. These appointments are longer than wedding day services and usually last anywhere from 2-4 hours.

6. What's in your kit?

I carry an array of professional brands included but not limited to Urban Decay, Makeup Up For Ever, Lorac, Anastasia Beverly Hills, Kat Von D, It Cosmetics, Temptu (Airbrush), and many different lash brands, There is no such thing as a 'one size fits all' beauty product so I am always on the hunt for new products to add to my bridal beauty kit. I also provide the option of airbrush instead of traditional foundation application at no additional cost. On top of all my beauty products, I have a lighting set up for dim light situations as well as a chair and table if space is limited!
