a little about us

We are a husband and wife team based in the southeast United States traveling all over the world capturing love stories, but most of all we are just two goofy people who really love love. We love to travel, explore, get lost in the woods, drink copious amounts of coffee and tea, and mostly just enjoy this incredible life we have been given.

Casto Photography & Cinema has been featured in top publications including Style Me Pretty, Magnolia Rouge, Trendy Bride Magazine, Snippet & Ink, HGTV, Weddings Unveiled, HOORAY!, Ruffled, among others. We take an organic natural approach to your day capturing moments as they unfold creating timeless and romantic imagery. The quiet moments in the morning, the look on your soon to be husband's face when he sees you for the first time, happy tears during the ceremony, and dancing the night away in your love's arms. We want to capture the essence and emotion of your day giving you memories you will cherish for a lifetime.

We can't wait to hear about your love story and document this incredible new chapter in your lives!

“THERE IS NO REMEDY
FOR LOVE
BUT TO LOVE MORE.”

A REFLECTION OF YOU.

We want to create imagery that truly reflects who you are as a couple documenting this incredible new chapter in your lives. Whether you're looking for an epic adventure, a bit of romance, a relaxing day at home, exploring your city, or just having a little bit of fun we want your session to really represent who you are as a couple. Years from now when your family is sifting through the albums and images they will get a glimpse into who you were and the things that you loved.

“Our engagement session with Becky & Tommy was so much more than we anticipated. We got to explore and adventure with them, climbing on rocks, we felt so romantic, and received some of the most stunning images I have ever seen.”
