

Hello,

First let me begin by congratulating you on your upcoming wedding!! I know you've been dreaming about this day for a long time or perhaps you haven't, but now realize that you have to plan one of the most important chapters of your life. Whatever the case may be, I know you want it to be perfect.

In the coming months you will visit countless venues, sample cakes, taste endless menus and listen to many bands and DJ's all in the hopes of creating your picture-perfect day. I understand your desire to be involved in every aspect of your special day and I wish to help in giving you one less thing to worry about.

My name is Dottie Bailey owner and operator of Bailey's Bartending. Bailey's Bartending prides itself in offering licensed and experienced Mixologists for all occasions. Our job is to recreate your dream and give you the day you have always envisioned. We take pleasure in providing customized packages for a seamless night of enjoyment.

Please visit our website www.baileysbartending.com for information about our company. We are also a preferred vendor listed on The Knot www.theknot.com, which is an exclusive website that provides the largest source for everything wedding related. Our company regularly offers specials on Facebook and Twitter as well so please make sure to visit and like those social media sites for exclusive offers and deals.

Regardless of whether you choose Bailey's Bartending for your wedding, we wish you the best on your special day and a wonderful life with your future partner.
