

Celebrate the beginning of your lifelong journey together at Midway Village Museum, an unrivaled Rockford wedding venue where beauty and romance come as naturally as the weeping willows that grace Lake Severn. The epitome of a rustic Rockford wedding, Midway Village offers 148 picturesque acres and multiple choices for a wedding ceremony location and reception venue. This expansive property features a two-story barn built in 1905, Moonlight Gardens, a Gazebho, a working Mill house and a quaint church built in 1883. This Victorian Village is comprised of 26 historical buildings, nestled among tall trees to create a retreat setting and conveniently located near I-90 and numerous Hotels for guest accommodations.
