Add on to Your Ceremony

Unity Candle Ceremony $20.00

Lighting a Unity Candle during your wedding ceremony is a special way to symbolize your two lives joining together as one.

Hand-fasting Ceremony $20.00

Hand-fasting is more literal expression of tying the knot: a couple will bind their hands together during the wedding ceremony (before, during, or after reciting their vows), often to symbolize their connection and devotion to one another. You will keep the cord at the end of the service.

Sand Blending Ceremony $30.00

A type of unity ceremony, the wedding sand ceremony expresses the coming together of two people or two families into one new family. It is a very simple idea that can be incredibly powerful.

Typically, each person has different colored sand and takes turns pouring it into one clear vessel, forming a layered effect. Sometimes just the couple participates, and sometimes the couple's children or parents join in with their own colored sand, adding to the layers of colors, and expressing the harmony of the entire family. You Will Keep Your Blended Jar at The End of The Service.

Family Blending Ceremony

$40.00

A type of unity ceremony, the Family Blending Ceremony expresses the coming together of two families into one new family. It is a very simple idea that can be incredibly powerful. This is also a parenting commitment ceremony celebrates your family in whatever form it takes.

If you have separated, one or both parents, if an amicable separation, can show your child or children that they are still as important as they always were. Or this ceremony can be held with one parent only. If you are being remarried, this ceremony is ideal to welcome a step-parent and seek a commitment by them to do the best for all children involved.

2 Versions of This Ceremony

Small Children We Use Candy for The Blend

For Older Children We Use A Sand Blending – different color sand for all involved

Either Ceremony You Will Keep Your Blended Jar at The End of The Service
