

Congratulations on your upcoming wedding! We would be honored to share in your wedding experience! At Perfect Day Ceremonies and Affordable I Do's our singular goal is to assist you in making your dream wedding a reality while working to reduce the stress commonly associated with planning a wedding. The complete success of your wedding is of the utmost importance to us and we understand that the wedding budget is most often the primary source of wedding related stress. To help alleviate this stress we offer flexible and affordable options to provide you with the services you want and need while helping you to help you prioritize your expenditures. An overview of ceremony packages, options, and pricing is included on the following pages but can also be found on our websites.

When you choose to work with Affordable I Do's and Perfect Day Ceremonies, you are getting more than just an officiant for your wedding; you are getting the full support of all of us as a team!

- Rev. Susan Lee-Wright will be your team leader, guiding you in creating your ceremony, managing the details as well as the overall schedule for each couple.
- Your officiant will work with you to firm up the final details and guide you and all involved through the ceremony and rehearsal, if included.
- As a team, we work together and back each other up in case of emergency.
- You choose the officiant you want to perform your ceremony for you.
- You choose the style and content of the ceremony.
- Convenient email and phone planning is included in all ceremony packages.
- In person planning meetings can be added as an option.

We would love the opportunity to discuss your plans and needs in more detail, including private consultations by phone, Skype or in person!
