

Rev. Mercy Packages and Pricing Guide

Sweet and Simple: Ceremony only $700

With the Sweet and Simple package Rev. Mercy helps create the ceremony of your dreams. The process includes a video or phone call with Rev. Mercy where she asks you a series of questions so that she can get to know you as a couple. She asks you questions about your relationship, your thoughts on marriage, and your ceremony preferences. Rev. Mercy then uses everything she learns from your conversation to write and perform a beautiful and unique ceremony customized just for you. This includes English/Spanish translation.

A Lovely Day: Ceremony and Rehearsal $797

In addition to the Sweet and Simple process described above, Rev. Mercy will attend your wedding rehearsal. This is especially helpful if you do not have a Wedding Planner or Coordinator or if you would like your family members and wedding party to get a chance to rehearse anything that they may be doing in the wedding ceremony such as a reading or ritual.

Ready for Love: Ceremony, Rehearsal and Pre-Marital/Spiritual Counseling Session $947

*In addition to the Lovely Day process described above, Rev. Mercy will provide you with a pre-marital/spiritual counseling session. What exactly does this entail? Well, Rev. Mercy usually recommends this type of session when you are feeling particularly stressed about the wedding planning, but it is also especially useful when you simply want a chance to have a deep and dedicated conversation about marriage with your fiancé. Mercy can guide your conversation to be about any topic that seems meaningful to you: communication, family issues, raising children, finances, spirituality and/or religion, etc. **

Above and Beyond: Ceremony, Rehearsal, and $1497
5 Pre-Marital/Spiritual Counseling Sessions
Best deal (each counseling session is $37 off the individual price)

This package includes everything listed above and is a holistic approach to making sure you are ready for your big day!

Individual Pre-Marital/Spiritual Counseling Session: $147

 Please note that the Pre-Marital/Spiritual Counseling session is not the same thing as a session with a licensed psychotherapist. Rev. Mercy is not a psychotherapist. She is an ordained Interfaith Minister, specifically trained to counsel over spiritual matters. If anything comes up during your session that Mercy feels would be better addressed by a mental health professional, she will refer you to one.*
