

Have you ever written a love letter?
Or carefully printed a note in your best penmanship to tuck into a bouquet of flowers? Ever received a beautifully calligraphed envelope in the mail and stared in awe at the perfect curves and swells that made up each letter? Have you ever wished your penmanship reflected the emotion and true meaning behind your words?

If so, you might be someone who appreciates the artistry of handwriting as much as I do! I'm a calligrapher and graphic artist serving clients throughout the US from the majestic Pacific Northwest. I take your words and turn them into beautiful pieces of art, heirloom-quality keepsakes, or unique bespoke wedding and event invitation suites.

I LOVE love, and am passionate about helping couples design their unique wedding stationery and decor, to set the tone for their special day. I also hold workshops where I teach calligraphy and hand lettering to students of all ages and backgrounds. I'm constantly exploring new techniques and methods and integrating them into my work, and dreaming up new ways to share my love of penmanship with others.
