videography

I am so happy to announce my partnership with the very talented videographer, Alyson Grisham, owner of Alyson Films LLC.

We are extremely excited to be working together and will be offering an exclusive discount off these prices when couples book both of our services on their wedding day. (Certain number of hours required for discount)

The videography packages start at $1550 and both cinematic & documentary high definition films are available, depending on what editing style you're looking for. Drone footage also available!

Package/pricing info available upon request.
