A "Concierge" Ceremony for You!

Peggy M. Lewis, Life Cycle Celebrant

www.floridaceremonies.com

My mission is "to take what is in your heart and put it into beautiful words for you". Your ceremony can set the mood you wish, express the values that are most important to you, and weave it all together in the context of your own unique love story.

It is my great joy to create a ceremony that feels "just right" for the couple and also for their guests.

Your guests will laugh; they will cry (a bit); and they will be enchanted by a ceremony that is new, warm, heartfelt and very, very personal.

Here's how we will make that happen:

I will:

Offer you unlimited consultation through email and telephone access.

Collaborate with you (through conversations and questionnaires.)

Brainstorm with you creative and unique ways to express the meaning of your special day.

Provide you with a wide variety of readings and vows; ask you lots of questions; and talk with you about various ideas to help your ceremony "pop" with your personalities and your unique love story.

Provide you with a draft of the ceremony ahead of time.

Give you unlimited editorial control. You can ask for as many changes as you want—until you feel it is perfect.

Schedule a conference call or in-person meeting to go over details of the ceremony.

Give you a beautiful keepsake copy of the entire text after the ceremony.

Price of this ceremony is:.....$700.00

I can attend your rehearsal for between $75 and $125.00 extra, depending on distance. Often, your venue will provide a person who can rehearse the processional and recessional with you. (The actual ceremony is usually not part of the rehearsal).

I can provide a portable mike and amplifier at no extra charge if one is needed.

Always, I will officiate with warmth and with joy, and with an attention to detail which will ensure that your ceremony flows elegantly and seamlessly.

Elopements: Tiny weddings, or those held midweek, can be booked for reduced prices of $350-$550.

From The Wedding Report (www.costofwedding.com) : "You should expect to pay, on average, 50%-100%+ more when choosing well-experienced professionals, designer labels, popular event locations, or unique or custom products and services."
