wedding experience

CAPTURING YOU

Each couple I photograph has their own distinct personality; it's what makes you, well...you. This spark of humanity is what I'm dying to capture on camera; it's what will give your photos a life of their own when you show them off thirty years from now.

My goal for each wedding is to offer a consultation prior to your wedding day in order to learn what makes you tick. Then I capture that personality on the big day. That usually means a good blend of "candid" photos and "posed" photos, and 9 out of 10 times, it's that perfect candid shot that you fall in love with.

WHO YOU'RE DEALING WITH

Trusting your wedding with a complete stranger is stressful. So, let's not be strangers! I'm a fun-loving family man with a wonderfully supportive (and beautiful!) wife and kids at home. My degree is in Graphic Design, but over the past five years I've fallen completely in love with photography and videography. At my core, I'm a story teller and would love nothing more than to help you share your love story with the world. - Andrew Crabtree
