Langtang Valley Trekking (12 Days Program)-USD 935 /person

The Langtang valley trekking is aptly called “Valley of Glaciers”, because it is surrounded by gigantic Himalayas that rise towards the sky. Agreeably, the short and easy Langtang Valley Trek is one of the most popular trekking trails in the Langtang Region.

The Langtang Valley Trekking starts in the lower Langtang Valley, and takes hikers through several forests, villages and farmlands that are owned by people of Tibetan origin. Once an important trading route with Tibet, the Tibetan influence still reflects in the the villages and people of this region.

You can trek in this region May to November. Langtang valley is really great destination for trekkers because of, culturally and naturally beauty and vast historical for religious. You can dive from Kathmandu to either Dhunche or Syabru benshi by local bus. It would be by private four wheels drive. There are two point to start this trek. One is from Dhunche and another from Syabru benshi. If you start from Dhunche, you need to follow the road about one and half hour then turn to right for trekking trail at Bharkhu where little local tea shop as well. And drive to Syabru benshi is quarter hour further than Dhunche and next day start trekking with following up Langtang River. You can start and end at two of those treks starting point. You can start this trip from Dhunche then end at Syabru benshi or alternatively as yours time frame.

You will be enjoying with Langtang Valley River, green scenery and mountain views during this trek. At kyangjing, where you can visit Nak cheese factory, it is used to say Yak cheese so far. Kyangjing Gompa is the last human settlement where you stay for this trip and do site trip around Kyangjing Ri, Tsergo Ri, Langshisha Kharka where ever you want but you should be physically fit too.

Day to Day Details Itineraries are as follows :-

Everest Base Camp Trek (15 Days program)—USD 1625 per person

Everest base camp trek is one of the most popular trekking trail of Nepal in the world. It follows the classic Everest Expedition route. It goes along the course of the Dudh Koshi river. From Lukla, we make our journey to the Base Camp via forests of rhododendron, through the heartland of the Sherpa community. In the Everest region, there is a hospital located Khunde and health post at Pheriche with altitude Doctors for the first aid treatment. Since few back years getting flight hassle in October season also for Everest base camp trek due to global changing. It would be better in March to last May and October to November to do Everest base camp trek.

Everest base camp trek is medium-hard class. EBC {Everest base camp} trek is probable altitude trouble to most tourists. You should be careful with your health and be prepared with experience agency as well as your guide. You can see on this trail high alpine countryside and such Mt. Everest, Lhotse, Makalu which are more than eight thousands meter above sea level. Remember that, from Everest base camp you can not see Mt Everest so far. You will have already seen on the way to Everest Base camp but for good view you have to try climb up to Kalapathar. The luck should be in your favor because it is not sure that you see the world highest peak due to weather. This trek or in Everest region used to flight hassle some time so far. It mean's better to have flexible timing trek to Everest region.

Everest base Camp trek can be quite strenuous at times as you have to walk for an average of six hours everyday. However, the presence of tea houses along the route gives us time for refreshments and rest. On camping treks, our porters and support staff will make all your food and accommodation arrangements. With our assistance you can reach the Everest Base Camp after seven days of walking. It is most great idea to have a experienced trekking guide for Everest base camp trek. Because trail to Everest base camp is strenuous on the broken ice path. Everest base camp trek is known as world highest peak region trekking.
