Weddings at the Heurich House Museum

Intimate.

The Heurich House Museum's lush historic interiors are a warm and intimate venue in the heart of the city. Our bright and spacious Conservatory and secluded urban Castle Garden are the perfect setting for up to 100 guests.

Historic.

A visit to the "Brewmaster's Castle" is a visit back in time to the late 19th century, when the Heurich family lived in Washington's premiere residential neighborhood, Dupont Circle. The mansion was completed in 1894 by German immigrant, local brewer, and philanthropist Christian Heurich (1842-1945). Recognized as Washington, D.C.'s most successful brewer, he ran the Chr. Heurich Brewing Co. until his death at 102.

Meaningful.

Both Heurich daughters, Anita Heurich Eckles and Karla Heurich King Harrison, were married in this house, as were their children and grandchildren. Join a wedding tradition lasting almost 90 years.
