GODDESS PACKAGE

Wedding day management is a service for the couple who plans the wedding on their own, then your professional planner starts working with you between three to two months prior to the wedding date. Your professional planner will meet with you to gather all the details that has been planned, including the contact information and contracted services from each vendor you have booked. Your professional planner will be on-site at the ceremony rehearsal to assist with directing. On the day of your wedding, your professional planner will coordinate the logistics, details, and timing with the wedding vendors.
