

About Ardenwood Farm

Ardenwood Farm is a horse farm and wedding destination located in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Nestled in rolling hills with views of verdant forests and landscaping, this scenic and romantic location features a variety of picturesque event spaces that include the horse barn, covered arena with patio, pastures and old oak tree.

Facilities and Capacity

This working horse farm and private property offers a variety of covered and outdoor event spaces for weddings and receptions of up to 250 wedding guests. Indoor weddings can be hosted in the covered arena with flowing access to a large patio overlooking horse pastures. Outdoor weddings can be held on the grounds with the backdrop of a 47 acre horse farm with rolling pasture land and forests. The beautiful main horse barn provides the perfect location for intimate wedding events such as bridal showers and rehearsal dinners, as well as a groom's lounge and bridal suite perfect for day of preparations.
