

About Lexi

Originally from Texas, I love a rustic wedding, but I also love being a part of weddings of all types. I want YOU to have the best and easiest day. Weddings should never be chaotic with the right plan in place. I am happy to help you make it the wedding of your dreams!

Specifications

Wedding planning will include making an event timeline, a checklist of what you will need to do before and during the wedding and calls the week of to make sure your vendors are on schedule.

Wedding coordination will include the planning and then execution of the plan by me. I will be at the rehearsal to practice order of operations. I will be available the whole wedding day to make sure everything is taken care of. Wedding design only includes design. I do not offer decorations or flowers. I simply help you pick what you want your wedding to look like.
