

First and foremost- Congratulations!

We know that this is a big moment - a once in a lifetime moment. We get it, and that's why we created The Day-Of.

About The Day-Of:

The Day-Of is your full service wedding planning tribe in Denver, Co. We create unrivaled weddings for the uncommon couple. Let your radical love story shine and feel like a guest at the year's best party!

Based in the heart of Denver and with over 15 years of wedding planning and professional theatre experience, your wedding tribe specializes in working with the coolest couples, rocking fanny packs and die hard love inclusivity.

Wedding Planning Services

For the 2020 Wedding Season

Wedding Planning + Design

Want a wedding that is fresh, fun and totally you? We will start by learning what makes the two of you unique, then your wedding tribe will connect you to our favorite venues and vendors, setup all connections and meetings, managing the budget, contracts and your to-do list along the way!

In person meetings, attendance at your tastings and walk-throughs and even your own wedding collaboration platform keeps everyone on the same page. We will oversee every detail, from our initial meeting to your goodbyes, and you get to be a guest at the years best party - your own!

The Day-Of clients typically spend around $500 per guest, not including our fee or couples wardrobe. The Day-Of takes a limited number of weddings a year. This package starts at $7,500 for Denver based weddings.

Wedding Consulting

Like having a BFF who is a professional wedding planner! Up to 4 one hour meetings where you can ask our tribe any and all your burning wedding planning questions! Get the inside scoop, and leave with a notebook full of tips to ease your planning journey! Each 1 hour meeting is a $250 investment in your sanity!

Destination Wedding Packages

The Day-Of has partnered with independent venues and vendors around the globe to provide an authentic, stunning and totally stress free destination wedding! Unique villas, chateaus and beach side properties await you and your guests at a cost that might just take your breath away. Price and locations upon request.

Who is The Day-Of?

Hi I'm Courtney, the Founder and Lead Event Guru for The Day-Of. I tend to be one part best friend, one part therapist and one part advocate for my couples. I lovingly fight for you to have the best day of your lives, and by the day of your wedding, I get to watch two good friends walk down the aisle.

Plus I get to wear a fanny pack to work. And dance to all your awesome music. And laugh with your uncle. And be with you in this one perfect moment in time.

I also love traveling, singing with Jazz bands, starting impromptu dance parties and drinking crazy amounts of green tea.

Courtney Hayes-Jurcheck and John Jurcheck, Co-Founders of The Day-Of and Denver Collaborative Events.

Reach out to us to see if we can be a match made in wedding heaven!

Cheers, Courtney
