WELCOME, FRIEND

so stoked
you're here ————— (like, seriously)

HEY, I'M INDIA JADE

Hey heyyyy, I'm India! An outgoing-introvert typically arriving with a caffeinated drink in hand & ready to hype you up at any moment. I am a destination wedding photographer serving dreamers and doers for over 11 years and more than 100 weddings. I love olives, thrifting, home projects, traveling and vibing with you on the dance floor.

I believe moments are sacred; people matter, home is what you make it, memories are greater than things, and life happens right now.

That means I'll hop on a plane tomorrow to capture your love story, refresh your champagne glass, and crash on your friend's couch after your wedding night. You deserve to relax on your wedding day and it's my priority to create a freeing experience and craft effortless, artful images to leave you with a happy heart and teary-eyed (in the good kinda way).

Here's to the intimate, wild, and sacred—the deep belly laughs, the inside jokes, and the golden stories we'll tell. I am here to celebrate your soft love, championing you all along the way.

Here's to capturing your joy.

—India Jade McCue

ARTFUL EDITORIAL

meets a documentary approach

for couples who know that people _____ are the art itself.

I've always been a people-watcher. At coffee shops and airports I'll observe passerby's with curiosity: what is their story? Where are they going? What are they dreaming of? Add this with my deep compassion for humankind and early 2000's romcoms and you get a storytelling wedding photography obsessed with your love.

My work combines meaningful motion-based prompts with a playful point of view that make you feel like you.

Observing your guests exactly as they are—laughing, jumping, munching—of course we'll get some posed photos and portraits for the family album, but we'll structure the day around how you and your person feel, rather than how many formalities we can squeeze in.

I can hop in as little or as much as needed, art directing your dream day to life. Before the celebration, we'll chat about your vibe, vision and work together to document the day exactly how you envisioned it. We'll play some music, dance around (shoes off, ofc) and celebrate you.

By the end you'll walk away with a full gallery, hundreds of images exploring the in-between moments as well as the core memories for your grandkiddos to melt over for years to come.

There are two things that stick out to us about India. First and foremost her skill behind the camera is unquestionably phenomenal. She has a great eye for capturing beautiful moments. Secondly what makes her such a unique and truly excellent photographer is the way she makes you feel during your sessions. You feel free, laughter fills the air, and you just enjoy time together while she is capturing each moment. She is a joy to be around!
