ABOUT ME

I started ElopeRVA in 2018 after seeing a need for officiant and elopement planning here in the Richmond area. I have been a registered civil celebrant in the State of Virginia since 2017. I felt the need for couples of all faiths and backgrounds to have an officiant who would create a tailored ceremony for their special day.

I have had the privilege and honor to officiate weddings and plan elopements not only here in the Richmond Area but also abroad. My goal is to provide my couples with the stress free wedding of their dreams. Eloping doesn't mean compromising your taste or what you want for your day. Whether you are planning a large wedding you would like me to officiate or you would like my help planning an elopement I am available to help every step of the way.

REVIEWS

"Chantal was extremely attentive and she helped my husband and I actually enjoy our wedding day because we knew she was taking care of all of the details. We can't begin to thank her for making our big day truly one of the happiest and best days of our lives!"

- Emily

"She heard all of our concerns and took care of our special day as if it were her own. She even made me a beautiful floral crown to complete my wedding day! I would recommend her to anyone looking for an unforgettable experience on their big day."
